December 2009

For your information, the Senate Committee on Public Safety staff has prepared this summary of bills sent to the Governor in 2009 pertaining to our Committee's subject-matter jurisdiction. I hope this compilation of public safety legislation will facilitate your access to the new laws enacted this year.

This year, the Senate Public Safety Committee continued to examine each measure in light of the ongoing prison overcrowding crisis. The "ROCA" policy (Receivership/Overcrowding Crisis Aggravation) adopted by the Committee last legislative session was continued into the first year of the 2009-2010 session. Under ROCA, the Committee held bills which could further exacerbate the overcrowding crisis by impacting existing prison beds through new or increased crimes or expanded criminal prosecutions. The Committee also worked with authors so policymakers could achieve the punitive and deterrent goals of their bills without further burdening California's prisons.

Each of the measures included in this summary is available from several sources:

- Copies of chaptered bills may be requested at no cost from the legislative Bill Room, State Capitol, Room B-32, Sacramento, CA 95814, or by calling (916) 445-2323. Copies of vetoed bills are available until February 2010.
- The Legislative Data Center maintains a website where these bills and analyses are available: <http://www.leginfo.ca.gov/bilinfo.html>

The text of this summary also is available at the Committee's list of publications at:

<http://www.sen.ca.gov/htbin/testbin/seninfo?SEN.COMMITTEE.STANDING.PUBLIC.SAFETY>.

I hope this legislative summary is useful to you.

Sincerely,

Editor's Notes

- Categorization of Bills. Many of the bills in this summary could fall under several different subject headings, but have been limited to one category in the interest of brevity. Readers may wish to skim the Contents section to identify any new laws of particular interest. In addition, those who focus on specific code areas may skim the Table of Sections Affected information, described below.
- Previous Votes Not Relevant. The legislative history for some measures, contain this summary note where the committee/floor votes of a prior version of a measure are not included. The votes that are shown in each bill summary refer to the committee/floor votes of the signed or vetoed measure. Where measures well into the legislative process have been substantially amended (gutted) and replaced with new language, earlier votes do not provide relevant information in determining the action of the Legislature on the enacted or vetoed version of the measure.
- Effective Date of Bills – Effect of Urgency Clause. Article IV, Section 8(c) of the California Constitution provides, ". . . a statute enacted at a regular session shall go into effect on January 1 next following a 90-day period from the date of enactment of the statute," and "urgency statutes shall go into effect immediately upon their enactment." Regardless of the date a bill takes effect, some measures may contain a delayed "operative" date for all or part of the measure; that is most common when a start-up period may be useful to prepare for the measure's impact.
- Contingent Measures. A bill may have language added which makes it operative, if enacted, only if another measure (or measures) also is enacted.
- Sunset Dates. Some measures have "sunset" dates that make them inoperative unless a later enacted statute becomes effective on or before the sunset date.
- Conflicts and "Double-Jointing" Language. If two or more measures both amend the same statutory section in the same year, then whichever measure is chaptered/enacted last will "chapter out" any changes made by the earlier measure(s) unless the last enacted bill contains double-jointing language that provides both the changes to the section made by the earlier measure(s) and the last enacted bill are to take effect. It generally may be assumed that measures in this summary which amend the same statutory section have the requisite double-jointing language so that all of the changes made by all of the measures will take effect.

- Two Votes in Appropriations Committees. Some bills have two separate votes in the Senate and Assembly Appropriations Committees; the first generally reflects the measure met the dollar threshold limit to be considered on the "suspense" file before final action. The second vote is the vote to pass the bill out of committee off of "suspense." This summary only lists the second vote if a bill was referred to suspense.
- SR 28.8. Senate Rule 28.8 allows the chair to move bills out of the Senate Appropriations Committee without a formal committee hearing or vote if the bill has no significant effect on state costs or revenues. Thus, SR 28.8 is reflected, where appropriate, instead of a vote.
- Jurisdiction of the Committee. The Senate Committee on Public Safety jurisdiction does not always include measures that involve misdemeanor and infraction criminal penalties. There are some bills, however, included in this summary which were not heard by this Committee but are included because they concern related subjects that may be of interest.
- Table of Sections Affected. This summary does not contain a Table of Sections Affected (TOSA). However, the TOSA prepared by the Legislative Counsel is available online at the Legislative Counsel's "Official California Legislative Information" site at: www.leginfo.ca.gov/.

Go to that Web site, click on "Legislative Publications" and then on "Table of Sections Affected," and search by code section. That same site also offers a "Bill Information" option which allows a word search and can be searched by statutory section number and is an alternative to the TOSA for finding bills by a statute number.

- Only "Final" Votes Included in this Summary. There may be more than one vote on a bill in a given legislative location. For example, hostile amendments (not offered by the author) may be proposed on the Senate Floor and those amendments may be defeated or "tabled"; a bill may first fail in a committee or on the Senate or Assembly Floor, reconsideration may be granted, and the bill may be amended and subsequently approved; or a bill may pass the Legislature and be returned at the Governor's request with amendments then adopted before the bill is sent again to the Governor. This summary reflects only the final votes on a bill in each legislative location.

Animals

SB 135 (Florez): Chapter 344: Animal abuse: cattle: tail docking.
(Amends Section 597n of the Penal Code.)

Legislative History:

Senate Food and Agriculture (4-1)
Senate Public Safety (5-2)
Senate Appropriations, SR 28.8
Senate Floor (27-12)
Senate Concurrence (26-12)

Assembly Public Safety (4-1)
Assembly Agriculture (6-1)
Assembly Appropriations (13-2)
Assembly Floor (58-15)

Existing law makes it a misdemeanor for any person to cut the solid part of the tail of any horse in the operation known as "docking".

This bill prohibits the docking of cattle, as defined, but excludes from the application of the crime of cattle docking emergency veterinary treatment performed, as specified.

SB 318 (Calderon): Chapter 302: Dogfighting forfeitures.
(Adds Section 598.1 to the Penal Code.)

Legislative History:

Senate Public Safety (6-0)
Senate Appropriations (13-0)
Senate Floor (36-2)

Assembly Public Safety (7-0)
Assembly Floor (77-0)

Existing law makes dogfighting, as specified, an offense.

This bill provides forfeiture procedures for certain property that was acquired through the crime of dogfighting, as specified. The bill state's findings and declarations of the Legislature in that regard and the intent of the Legislature in connection with the forfeiture proceeding provisions.

SB 609 (Hollingsworth): Chapter 15: Importation of crocodile and alligator parts.
(Amends Section 653o of the Penal Code.)

Legislative History:

Senate Natural Resources & Water (7-0)
Senate Floor (22-11)

*Assembly Water, Parks &
Wildlife (9-2)*
Assembly Floor (45-16)

Existing law, that becomes operative on January 1, 2010, makes it a crime to import into California for commercial purposes, to possess with intent to sell, or to sell any part or product of the dead body of a crocodile or alligator.

This bill instead provides that this provision become operative on January 1, 2015. The bill specifies that it shall not be construed to authorize the importation or sale of any alligator or crocodilian species, or any products thereof, that is listed as endangered or that would be in violation of any federal law or international treaty, as specified.

AB 241 (Nava): VETOED: Dogs and cats: breeding for sale.

(Adds Section 597.8 to the Penal Code.)

Legislative History:

Assembly Public Safety (5-2)

Assembly Business & Professions (8-2)

Assembly Appropriations (13-3)

Assembly Floor (60-14)

Assembly Concurrence (59-17)

Senate Public Safety (4-0)

Senate Appropriations, SR 28.8

Senate Floor (25-9)

Existing law proscribes specified acts against animals and imposes criminal penalties for a violation.

This bill would have made it a misdemeanor for any person to have more than a combined total of 50 adult unsterilized dogs and cats, in the state, for breeding or raising them for sale as pets, as specified. The bill also would have prohibited a business entity, as defined, from having more than a combined total of 50 adult unsterilized dogs and cats, in the state, for breeding or raising them for sale as pets, as specified. The bill would have made it a misdemeanor to act in concert with another person or to voluntarily assist a business entity in violating these provisions. The bill would have authorized certain officers to lawfully take possession of an animal kept in violation of those provisions, as specified.

AB 242 (Nava): Chapter 225: Dog fighting.

(Amends Section 597.5 of the Penal Code.)

Legislative History:

Assembly Public Safety (7-0)

Assembly Appropriations (17-0)

Assembly Floor (77-0)

Senate Public Safety (6-0)

Senate Appropriations, SR 28.8

Senate Floor (30-1)

Existing law provides that the crime of being a spectator at a dog fight is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding 6 months, or by a fine not to exceed $1,000, or by both that imprisonment and fine.

This bill increases the penalty for the crime of being a spectator at a dog fight to imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or a fine not to exceed $5,000, or both that imprisonment and fine.

AB 243 (Nava): VETOED: Animal abuse: penalties.

(Amends Section 597.1 of, and adds Section 597.9 to, the Penal Code.)

Legislative History:

Assembly Public Safety (6-0)

Senate Public Safety (7-0)

Assembly Appropriations (13-1)

Senate Appropriations (9-0)

Assembly Floor (65-12)

Senate Floor (28-4)

Assembly Concurrence (74-0)

Existing law provides that upon the conviction of a person for a violation of a specified law regarding the failure to care for animals, the court is authorized to make an order prohibiting the defendant, as a condition of probation, from owning, possessing, caring for, or having any contact with animals of any kind and to order the convicted person to immediately deliver all animals in his or her possession to a designated public entity, as specified. Existing law requires the court, in the event of acquittal or final discharge of a person arrested pursuant to these provisions, to direct the release of the seized or impounded animals, on demand, upon a showing of proof of ownership.

This bill instead would have required the court to make the orders above regarding ownership and forfeiture, as specified. The bill would have required the owner to make additional showings in order for the court to direct the release of seized or impounded animals.

Existing law provides that the cost of seizing, caring for, and treating any animal seized pursuant to specified provisions regarding the failure to care for animals shall constitute a lien on the animal and that the animal shall not be returned to its owner until the charges are paid. Existing law provides that no animal properly seized pursuant to these provisions shall be returned to its owner until, in the determination of the seizing agency or hearing officer, the animal is physically fit, or the owner can demonstrate that the owner can and will provide the necessary care.

This bill additionally would have applied these provisions to animals seized pursuant to a search warrant. In the event that the owner has satisfied the lien, this bill would have provided a process for the seizing agency or prosecuting attorney to file a petition seeking forfeiture of any animal, as specified.

Existing law establishes various other crimes regarding cruelty to animals and the failure to care for animals.

This bill would have required the court, upon conviction of a person for certain of these crimes, in addition to any other sentence or penalty, to enter an order enjoining the person from owning, possessing, maintaining, having custody of, residing with, or caring for any animal within a specified period after conviction, and would make related changes. The bill would have made a violation of this order a misdemeanor, as specified. The bill would have provided that the court may, in the interest of justice, reduce the duration of, or, in the case of livestock owners, exempt a defendant from, these restrictions under specified circumstances.

AB 490 (Smyth): Chapter 446: Pet stores.

(Amends Sections 122350 and 122354 of the Health and Safety Code.)

Legislative History:

Assembly Business & Professions (11-0)

Assembly Agriculture (8-0)

Assembly Appropriations (12-1)

Assembly Floor (77-0)

Assembly Concurrence (78-0)

Senate Business, Professions

& Economic Development (10-0)

Senate Appropriations, SR 28.8

Senate Floor (38-0)

Existing law establishes the Pet Store Animal Care Act, which regulates the care and maintenance of animals in the custody of a pet store, and provides limits on the sale or transfer of those animals. A violation of the act is punishable as a misdemeanor. The act defines a pet store as any retail establishment open to the public and selling, or offering for sale, animals.

This bill revises the definition of a pet store to exclude the selling, or offering for sale, animals to an agricultural operation for purposes that are directly related to the raising of livestock or poultry on a farm or ranch. Under the act, an employee of a pet store may only destroy an animal intended as food for another animal in accordance with a prescribed methodology, provided the employee receives adequate training, as described.

Existing law requires the completion of the employee's training to be documented in writing and retained by the pet store for 2 years.

This bill instead provides that a rodent or rabbit that is intended as food for another animal may be destroyed by a pet store operator or employee only in accordance with specified conditions, and only if the pet store operator or employee is certified, in writing, by a California-licensed veterinarian, as specified.

AB 708 (Huffman): Chapter 290: Fish and wildlife: poaching.

(Amends Sections 12012 and 12157 of, and repeals and adds Sections 12013 and 12154 of, the Fish and Game Code.)

Legislative History:

Assembly Water, Parks & Wildlife (13-0)

Assembly Appropriations (16-0)

Assembly Floor (77-0)

Assembly Concurrence (78-0)

*Senate Natural Resources &
Water (11-0)*

Senate Public Safety (7-0)

Senate Appropriations, SR 28.8

Senate Floor (35-0)

Existing law regulates the taking or possession of birds, mammals, fish, amphibians, and reptiles. Except as expressly provided otherwise in the Fish and Game Code, any violation of that code, or of any rule, regulation, or order made or adopted under that code, is a misdemeanor with specified fines.

This bill makes changes to specified fines regarding the taking and illegal possession of specified species.

AB 1122 (Lieu): VETOED: Animal abuse: sale of live animals.

(Adds Section 597.4 to the Penal Code.)

Legislative History:

Assembly Business & Professions (7-3)

Assembly Appropriations (11-2)

Assembly Floor (52-19)

Assembly Concurrence (57-19)

Senate Public Safety (5-1)

Senate Appropriations, SR 28.8

Senate Floor (21-13)

Existing law proscribes animal abuse, as specified, including the failure to maintain and care for the premises and animals at pet shops. Existing law also generally provides that a pet store shall not sell, offer for sale, trade, or barter any dog or cat that is under 8 weeks of age, and may sell, offer for sale, trade, or barter a dog or cat over 8 weeks of age only if the animal is weaned.

This bill would have enacted a new, additional crime for any person to willfully sell, display or offer for sale, or to give away as part of a commercial transaction, a live animal on any street, highway, public right-of-way, parking lot, carnival, or boardwalk, as specified.

Arson

AB 27 (Jeffries): Chapter 71: Aggravated arson: damages threshold, extension of sunset clause.

(Amends Section 451.5 of the Penal Code.)

Legislative History:

Assembly Public Safety (6-0)

Assembly Appropriations (17-0)

Assembly Floor (79-0)

Senate Public Safety (7-0)

Senate Appropriations, SR 28.8

Senate Floor (34-0)

Existing law defines the crime of aggravated arson, and makes a person guilty of that crime if the fire caused property damage and other losses in excess of $5,650,000. Existing law specifies costs to be included in calculating property damage for purposes of these provisions and states legislative intent to review the property damage threshold in light of inflation within 5 years. Existing law repeals the provisions relating to property damage on January 1, 2010.

This bill increases the amount of damage required for a person to be guilty of aggravated arson from $5,650,000 to $6,500,000 and extend the repeal date for the provisions relating to property damage until January 1, 2014.

Assault and Battery

AB 561 (Carter): Chapter 116: Assault and battery on highway workers.

(Amends Sections 241.5 and 243.65 of the Penal Code.)

Legislative History:

Assembly Public Safety (7-0)

Assembly Appropriations (16-0)

Assembly Floor (79-0)

Assembly Concurrence (77-0)

Senate Public Safety (7-0)

Senate Appropriations, SR 28.8

Senate Floor (34-0)

Existing law establishes the (separate) offenses of assault and battery against a highway worker engaged in the performance of his or her duties. The term "highway worker" is defined as an employee or contractor of the Department of Transportation engaged in his or her duties.

This bill expands the definition of highway worker to include employees of a city, county, or city and county, as well as employees of a contractor while working under contract with the Department of Transportation, contractors and employees of contractors while working under contract with a city, county, or city and county, and volunteers, as defined, and to include additional specified activities related to local roads or streets.

Existing law requires the Department of Justice maintain state summary criminal history information, as defined. Existing law authorizes the Attorney General to furnish state summary criminal history information and, when specifically authorized, federal criminal history information upon a showing of a compelling need to various entities for a variety of purposes.

This bill adds any foreign government to the list of entities to which the Attorney General is authorized to provide the described information if the information is requested by the individual who is the subject of the record requested and if that information is needed in conjunction with the individual's application to adopt a minor child who is a citizen of that foreign nation. Existing law requires the Department of Justice (DOJ) to maintain a Child Abuse Central Index, which acts as a repository of reported known or suspected incidents of child abuse or neglect. DOJ is required to immediately notify an agency that submits a report, or a prosecutor who requests notification, of any information in CACI that is relevant to the known or suspected instance of child abuse or severe neglect reported by the agency. Current law then requires the agency to make that information available to the reporting medical practitioner, custodian, guardian ad litem, or counsel appointed as specified, or the appropriate licensing agency, if he or she is treating or investigating a case of known or suspected child abuse or severe neglect.

This bill makes a minor clarification to specify that the information must be provided to the reporting "health care practitioner who is treating a person reported as a possible victim of known or suspected child abuse." The bill makes an additional conforming technical revision to distinguish between health care practitioners treating persons and other entities handling or investigating cases.

Existing law provides that entry of judgment may be deferred with respect to defendants who are charged with enumerated drug crimes. The defendant must meet certain criteria, including that he or she has had no prior convictions for any offense involving controlled substances and no prior felony convictions within the prior 5 years. The prosecutor is required to review his or her file to determine whether those conditions apply to the defendant and, if the defendant is found ineligible for deferred entry of judgment, file with a court a declaration stating the grounds upon which the determination is based.

This bill would have authorized a court, at the defendant's request, to review the prosecuting attorney's determination of ineligibility, and would have further authorized the court to make the final determination, as specified.

Existing law makes it a misdemeanor for any person to possess nitrous oxide with the intent to breathe, inhale, or ingest for the purpose of causing a condition of intoxication, elation, euphoria, dizziness, stupefaction, or dulling of the senses, as specified

This bill provides that it is a misdemeanor to sell or give away nitrous oxide to a person under 18 years of age. The court is required to consider ordering a defendant to perform community service as a condition of probation. The bill specifies that it is a defense to this crime that the defendant honestly and reasonably believed that the minor involved in the offense was at least 18 years of age. The defendant bears the burden of proof of the defense by a preponderance of the evidence. The bill provides that one may refuse to sell or give away nitrous oxide or a nitrous oxide product, as specified, to a person who is unable to produce adequate proof of age of majority.

This bill requires a court to suspend the business license of a repeat offender, except as specified. The bill does not apply to the sale of nitrous oxide contained in food products for use as a propellant or to the administration of nitrous oxide by licensed medical and dental practitioners or those they supervise, as specified.

Existing law contains numerous provisions concerning sentences for criminal offenses, time credits in prison, parole, and probation supervision, as specified.

This bill generally makes the following changes to these provisions:

- The legislation revises and recasts day-for-day credits, and provides up to 6 weeks of credits for inmates who complete specific milestones in rehabilitative programming such as vocation, substance abuse treatment or education. Credits under the revised credit formulas are subject to forfeiture.
- Property crime thresholds, many of which have not changed since 1982, are updated to reflect the cost of living, except grand theft which remains at $400.
- This bill establishes the Parole Reentry Accountability Program. As part of the program, the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) will use a parole violation decision-making instrument to determine the most appropriate parole sanctions for a parole violator. Parole violators with a history of substance abuse or mental illness may be referred to a re-entry court. The court will work with the assistance of parole agents to determine the appropriate conditions of parole.
- Low and moderate risk parolees with non-serious, non-violent and non-sex offenses will not be subject to parole revocation.
- County probation will receive a portion of CDCR savings for improving outcomes so felony probationers who would otherwise be sent to prison remain

(NOTE: This bill will become operative on January 25, 2010 -- the 91st day following adjournment of the 2009-10 Third Extraordinary Session. See California Const. Art. IV § 8(c).)

Existing law also requires the department to consider specified risk factors when classifying the inmate.

This bill would have done the following:

- Added to the list of risk factors to be considered, "Self-reported safety concerns related to the sexual orientation and gender identity of the inmate or ward."
- Prohibited the CDCR from requiring any inmate or ward to disclose or report his or her sexual orientation or gender identity at any time, and would have provided that a disclosure or report shall not be discredited solely because it was not provided at an earlier point in time.
- Prohibited the CDCR from disciplining or otherwise punishing an inmate or ward if the inmate or ward failed to disclose or report his or her sexual orientation or gender identity during all or part of his or her term of commitment.
- Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to require or justify expansion or construction of CDCR facilities.

Existing law establishes restitution centers for inmates to provide a means for those sentenced to prison to be able to pay their victims financial restitution, as specified. Restitution center inmates are housed and employed in the community.

This bill would have required the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, no later than June 30, 2011, to reopen and operate 2 restitution centers. The bill would have provided that this requirement not become operative if certain reforms had been implemented.

Existing law provides that a court may order the department to place an eligible defendant in a restitution center if the court makes a restitution order or if a restitution agreement is entered into by the victims and the defendant.

This bill would have specified that the court may also order the department to place an eligible defendant in a restitution center if the court makes an order for a restitution fine. Inmates who commit crimes involving direct victims would have received priority placement in restitution centers.

Existing law provides criteria for eligibility for placement in a restitution center, including in part, that a defendant has not served a prison term within the 5 years prior to the present conviction, does not have a criminal history of a conviction for the sale of drugs or for a crime involving violence or sex, and did not receive a sentence of more than 36 months.

This bill would have revised those criteria to provide, among other criteria, that a defendant would have been eligible for placement in a restitution center if he or she did not have a conviction for the sale of drugs within the previous 5 years, or for an offense requiring registration as a sex offender, or for a serious or violent felony, and the defendant did not receive a sentence of more than 60 months for the current offense or offenses.

In the event of a tie vote on the issue of whether or not the inmate should be paroled, the matter shall be referred to the board for an en banc hearing, as specified.

This bill provides that in the event of a tie vote, the matter shall be referred to the board for an en banc review limited to the record that was before the panel that rendered the tie vote. The board shall vote, upon the en banc review of the record, to either grant or deny parole and render a statement of decision. The board shall separately state reasons for its decision to grant or deny parole. The commissioners involved in the tie vote shall be recused from consideration of the matter in the en banc review.

Existing law, as amended by Proposition 9, the Victim's Bill of Rights Act of 2008, Marsy's Law, of the November 4, 2008, statewide General Election, establishes procedures at all hearings for the purpose of reviewing a prisoner's parole suitability, or the setting, postponing, or rescinding of parole dates, and provides prisoners and victims specified rights at these hearings.

This bill provides that when multiple offenses occur in multiple jurisdictions and all of the offenses involve the same defendant or defendants and one scheme or substantially similar activity, jurisdiction for all offenses, including associated and connected non-identity theft offenses, is proper in any one of the counties where one of the offenses occurred.

Existing law requires a court to consider specified facts when determining if all counts in a complaint alleging multiple offenses of unauthorized use of personal identifying information occurring in multiple counties should be joined in one county for prosecution.

This bill requires the court to consider whether or not the offenses involved substantially similar activity or the same scheme when making that determination.

Existing law requires that a defendant be brought to trial within 60 days of arraignment on an indictment or information in a felony case, or within 30 or 45 days of arraignment or entry of plea in a misdemeanor case, as specified. Under existing law, the case must be dismissed if the defendant did not waive that time limit or consent to an extension of time, as specified, and the case is not brought to trial within the time limit. Under existing law, if the defendant does waive time, he or she may withdraw his or her waiver of time and then the case is required to be brought to trial within 60 days for a felony, or 30 or 45 days for a misdemeanor, of the withdrawal of the waiver. Existing law provides that when there is no general time waiver, and a case has been set for trial beyond the time limits specified above by request or consent, express or implied, the defendant must be brought to trial on the date set or within 10 days thereafter.

This bill requires the withdrawal of a time waiver to be done in open court, as specified. The bill specifies that in the absence of an express general time waiver from the defendant, or upon the withdrawal of a general time waiver, the court shall set the trial date, as specified, and shall notify all parties of that date.

Existing law provides that in any case in which a person is arrested for a misdemeanor violation of a protective court order involving domestic violence, as defined, or arrested for a misdemeanor pursuant to a policy relating to domestic violence, the person shall be taken before a magistrate rather than being released, unless the arresting officer determines that there is not a reasonable likelihood that the offense will continue or resume or that the safety of persons or property would be imminently endangered by release of the person arrested. Existing law requires that before any person who has been arrested for commission of certain crimes, including specified domestic violence offenses, stalking, and criminal threats, is released on bail in an amount other than that specified in the schedule of bail or is released on his or her own recognizance, a hearing be held at which the court shall consider certain enumerated factors including the potential danger the detained person poses to other persons.

This bill clarifies that the provisions authorizing the arresting officer to release a person arrested for a misdemeanor without regard to scheduled bail do not apply to those specified crimes.

Existing law provides that in any case in which a person is arrested for a misdemeanor, including a violation of any city or county ordinance, and does not demand to be taken before a magistrate, the person is required to be released according to specified procedures. Existing law also specifies that those provisions are not to be construed to affect a defendant's ability to be released on bail or on his or her own recognizance.

This bill instead provides that those provisions are not to be construed to affect a defendant's ability to be released on bail or on his or her own recognizance except as provided in another provision restricted release, for certain charges, including specified misdemeanor domestic violence offenses.

Existing law requires that whenever a person is arrested for a misdemeanor, that person shall be released according to certain procedures unless one of specified reasons exists for nonrelease and requires the arresting officer to indicate the reason for nonrelease, as specified.

This bill specifies as a reason for nonrelease that the person was subject to a separate provision that forbids release of a person for specified offenses, including certain misdemeanor domestic violence violations, prior to a hearing held in open court before a magistrate or judge on any basis except payment of the scheduled bail.

Existing law provides that entry of judgment may be deferred with respect to defendants who are charged with certain enumerated crimes and meet certain criteria including that they have no prior convictions for any offense involving controlled substances and have had no prior felony convictions within the 5 years prior, as specified. Existing law provides that if the prosecuting attorney determines that a defendant may qualify for a deferred entry of judgment, the prosecuting attorney must advise the defendant and his or her attorney in writing, as specified. Existing law provides that, upon successful completion of a deferred entry of judgment program, the arrest upon which the judgment was deferred shall be deemed to have never occurred and allows for the sealing of court and arrest records where the interests of justice would be served, as specified. Existing law similarly establishes a preguilty plea drug court program wherein criminal proceedings are suspended without a plea of guilty for designated defendants.

This bill authorizes a superior court, with the concurrence of the prosecuting attorney of the county, to create a deferred entry of judgment reentry program aimed at preventing recidivism among first-time nonviolent felony drug offenders. The bill specifies the characteristics of that program and the process for eligibility for the program.

Existing law provides that no discovery shall occur in criminal cases except as provided by statute or as mandated by the Constitution of the United States. Under existing law, a defendant and his or her attorney are required to disclose to the prosecuting attorney any reports or statements of experts made in connection with the case, including the results of physical or mental examinations, scientific tests, experiments, or comparisons which the defendant intends to offer in evidence at the trial.

This bill allows the court to order a defendant in a criminal action or a minor in a juvenile delinquency proceeding to submit to examination by a prosecution-retained mental health expert whenever a defendant or minor, as specified, places in issue his or her mental state at any phase of the criminal action or juvenile proceeding through the proposed testimony of any mental health expert. The bill requires the prosecuting attorney to submit a list of the tests he or she proposes to have a prosecution-retained expert conduct on the defendant or minor and requires the court, upon the request of the defendant or minor, to hold a hearing to consider any objections to the proposed tests. The bill requires the court to make a threshold determination before ordering the defendant to submit to the examination that the proposed tests bear some reasonable relation to the mental state placed in issue by the defendant or minor. The bill specifies that its purpose is to respond to Verdin v. Superior Court (2008) 43 Cal.4th 1096, as specified.

Existing law authorizes the Alameda County Board of Supervisors to authorize an increase in the fees for marriage licenses and confidential marriage licenses, up to a maximum increase of $2 until January 1, 2010, as specified. Existing law authorizes the Alameda County Board of Supervisors and the City Council of the City of Berkeley to authorize an increase in the fees for certified copies of certain vital records, up to a maximum increase of $2, as specified. Existing law authorizes those governmental entities to make further increases in those fees each year, as specified. Existing law requires these fees to be allocated for purposes relating to domestic violence prevention, intervention, and prosecution.

This bill extends the operation of those provisions indefinitely.

Existing law requires the Alameda County Board of Supervisors and the City Council of the City of Berkeley to submit to the Assembly and Senate Committees on Judiciary reports regarding the above fee increases by July 1, 2009, as specified.

This bill instead requires the Alameda County Board of Supervisors and the City Council of the City of Berkeley, if they elect to increase fees as specified, to submit preliminary reports by July 1, 2009, and final reports by July 1, 2014. The bill repeals these provisions on January 1, 2015.

Existing law requires every secondhand dealer or coin dealer, as described, to report daily, or on the first working day after receipt or purchase of the property, on forms either approved or provided at actual cost by the Department of Justice (DOJ), all tangible personal property that he or she has purchased, taken in trade, taken in pawn, accepted for sale on consignment, or accepted for auctioning, to the chief of police or to the sheriff, as specified. Other existing provisions of law make a violation of these provisions a criminal offense.

Existing law also generally regulates firearms dealers and firearms transactions. Existing law requires that, on the date of receipt, a dealer report to the DOJ in a format prescribed by the department the acquisition by the dealer of the ownership of a handgun. Existing law exempts from those provisions a firearms dealer who is also licensed as a secondhand dealer.

This bill amends the existing requirement that secondhand dealers report daily all property purchased, taken in trade, taken in pawn, etc., to local law enforcement to exclude firearms from that reporting requirement and instead requires that secondhand dealers report daily any firearms purchased, taken in trade, taken in pawn, etc., directly to DOJ in a format prescribed by DOJ.

This bill also provides that DOJ may retain secondhand dealer firearm reports to determine whether a firearm taken in by a secondhand dealer has been reported lost or stolen. Following the return or transfer of a firearm by a secondhand dealer, the existing provisions of law regarding retention of these records will apply.

Existing law provides for the appointment of counsel to represent a parent or guardian of a child, or the child, in juvenile court proceedings if the parent or guardian is unable to afford counsel. Existing law also provides that the father, mother, spouse, or other person liable for the support of the minor shall be liable to the county for those costs, except as specified, and, more generally, for specified other costs, including the reasonable costs of support of the minor while the minor is placed in any institution pursuant to an order of the juvenile court or pursuant to the authority of a peace officer to take a minor into temporary custody. Existing law authorizes the board of supervisors to designate a county financial evaluation officer to make financial evaluations of liability for reimbursement of the costs described above, as specified, and authorizes that officer to petition the court for an order requiring the person who is determined to be financially responsible to pay the costs.

This bill expands these provisions to specifically provide that the persons who are liable for the support of the minor shall also be liable for the cost to the county or the court for the cost of legal services rendered to the minor, except under specified circumstances. The bill specified that the fees collected pursuant to this provision be deposited in the Trial Court Trust Fund. The bill also requires the Judicial Council to establish a cost recovery program, as specified. The bill also authorizes the court, with the consent and agreement of the county, to designate a financial evaluation officer to make financial evaluations of liability for reimbursement pursuant to the provision governing liability for the cost to the county or the court of legal services rendered to the minor.

Existing law provides for the confinement of minors adjudicated to have committed criminal offenses in the Division of Juvenile Facilities (DJF), as specified.

This bill requires DJF to place all applicable wards, as defined, in its custody on supervised parole within the period of 120 to 90 days prior to the date of release from custody, as specified, or within the period of 120 to 90 days prior to completion of the maximum period of confinement, as specified, whichever comes first. This bill provides that these provisions do not apply when a petition or order for further detention has been requested, as provided. This bill also provides that a ward who has been released under these provisions shall be subject to revocation of parole for alleged violations committed during the release period.

Existing law establishes the Interstate Compact on Juveniles. The compact sets forth the agreement between the contracting states regarding the supervision of delinquent juveniles, including the procedure for the return of runaways and escapees.

This bill repeals this existing compact and replaces it with a new Interstate Compact for Juveniles, as specified. Among other things, this bill provides that the compact administrator, as defined, in this state would be the executive director of the Corrections Standards Authority, and requires that executive director to convene an executive steering committee to review and make recommendations regarding the compact, as specified. The bill also requires the Corrections Standards Authority to present the committee's final report to the Legislature by January 1, 2011. The new compact sunsets January 1, 2012.

Existing law provides that a spouse has a privilege during the marital relationship and afterwards to refuse to disclose, and to prevent another from disclosing, a communication if the spouse claims the privilege and the communication was made in confidence between the spouses while they were husband and wife. A married person also has a privilege not to testify against his or her spouse in any proceeding and, when the spouse is a party to a proceeding, a privilege not to be called as a witness by an adverse party to that proceeding without the prior express consent of the spouse having the privilege. The Public Safety Officers Procedural Bill of Rights Act provides various rights and protections to peace officers, including the procedure for interrogation of peace officers who are under investigation.

This bill would have provided that a peace officer who asserts any of the marital privileges described above would not be subject to administrative discipline for failure to report information to his or her supervisor or department, except when the information concerns criminal or certain other conduct of the peace officer's spouse, who is also a peace officer employed by the department, and other specified conditions would have applied. The bill would have provided that this provision would only apply to administrative disciplinary investigations and hearings, and not to other civil or criminal proceedings.

misconduct. If the public agency determines that discipline may be taken, it shall complete its investigation and notify the public safety officer of its proposed disciplinary action within that year. In Mays v. City of Los Angeles, 43 Cal.4th 313 (2008), the court held that this does not require the agency to specify the disciplinary action, just to state that some action will be taken.

- $45 million to provide substance abuse treatment for criminal offenders convicted of nonviolent drug offenses in the Offender Treatment Program, a deferred entry of judgment program, a diversion program, or a similar program funded through the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, as specified;
- $45 million to provide grants to county probation departments for the purpose of providing evidence-based supervision, programs, or services to adult felon probationers with the purpose of reducing the likelihood that these probationers will commit new crimes or other violations and be sent to prison, as specified;
- $19.75 million for the Anti-Drug Abuse Enforcement Program to support multijurisdictional drug task forces that combat street to mid-level drug sales, manufacturing, and distribution at the local level;
- $10 million to the Judicial Council to create, in partnership with the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, reentry courts designed to divert parole violators from prison through use of collaborative courts that provide enhanced supervision and services for inmates with mental health and substance abuse problems;
- $4.5 million for the California Multijurisdictional Methamphetamine Enforcement Team (Cal-MMET) Program to combat mid- to high-level methamphetamine manufacturing and drug trafficking organizations;
- $3.75 million for human trafficking task forces for purposes of increasing coordination among law enforcement agencies, district attorneys, victim services groups, and others to improve or increase training in human trafficking cases and the investigation and prosecution of those cases;
- $3.3 million for firearm trafficking programs designed to increase coordination among state, federal, and local law enforcement agencies for the purpose of increasing anti-firearms trafficking efforts in California's border region;
- 2.1 million for Regional Anti-Gang Intelligence-Led Policing Programs designated to establish a statewide network of antigang coordinators among law enforcement agencies and community antigang efforts to support intelligence-led policing focused on gang violence;

Existing law provides that most felonies are punishable by a triad of terms of incarceration in the state prison, comprised of low, middle, and upper terms. Previous law that required the court to impose the middle term, unless there were circumstances in aggravation or mitigation of the crime, was amended to provide that the choice of the appropriate term rests within the sound discretion of the court. Existing provisions related to sentence enhancements involving criminal street gang activity, firearms, and sentencing generally specify that the court shall impose the middle term of a triad of sentence enhancements unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation of the crime.

This bill deletes the requirement that the court impose the middle term, as specified, from those provisions and instead provides that the court, in its discretion, impose the enhancement that best serves the interests of justice. This bill provides that these changes will be repealed on January 1, 2011.

Existing law generally authorizes the use of a "State-Authorized Risk Assessment Tool for Sex Offenders" (SARATSO) pursuant to the legislative finding that "a comprehensive system of risk assessment, supervision, monitoring and containment for registered sex offenders residing in California communities is necessary to enhance public safety and reduce the risk of recidivism posed by these offenders."

Existing law also establishes a "SARATSO Review Committee," comprised of a representative of the State Department of Mental Health, in consultation with a representative of the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) and a representative of the Attorney General's office.

This bill provides that the SARATSO Review Committee is staffed by the CDCR.

This bill further provides a review process where an agency responsible for scoring the SARATSO for an individual sex offender believes an individual score does not represent the person's true risk level, as specified.

This bill provides for sex offenders on parole to be risk assessed if they were not assessed prior to release from state prison or a Department of Mental Health facility, as specified.

This bill provides for SARATSO scores to be submitted to and included in the Sex Offender Tracking Program maintained by the Department of Justice, as specified.

This bill revises the law concerning how eligible persons not assessed prior to their release from custody may be assessed, as specified.

This bill clarifies access to records by persons acting under the authority of the SARATSO Review Team, as specified.

Existing law, the California Control of Profits of Organized Crime Act, sets procedures for forfeiture of property and profits acquired through a pattern of criminal profiteering activity, as specified. The law requires the prosecution to file a petition for forfeiture in conjunction with certain criminal charges. Criminal profiteering activity is defined to include specified crimes.

This bill includes abduction or procurement by fraudulent inducement for prostitution within the definition of criminal profiteering activity, as specified. Under organized crime forfeiture law, in all cases where property is forfeited, the money forfeited or the proceeds of sale of forfeited property must be distributed by the state or local governmental entity in accordance with certain procedures, including to the general fund of the state or local governmental entity, whichever prosecutes.

This bill specifies that in any case involving human trafficking of minors for purposes of prostitution or lewd conduct, or in any case involving abduction or procurement by fraudulent inducement for prostitution, the forfeited proceeds of criminal profiteering shall be deposited in the Victim-Witness Assistance Fund to be available for appropriation to fund child sexual exploitation and child sexual abuse victim counseling centers and prevention programs. The bill also requires 50% of the funds deposited in the Victim-Witness Assistance Fund pursuant to this new requirement to be granted to community-based organizations that serve minor victims of human trafficking.

Existing law authorizes the sentencing court to impose an additional fine of up to $5,000 on any person convicted of pimping, pandering, or procurement of a child under 16 years of age. Such fines shall be deposited in the Victim-Witness Assistance Fund to be available for appropriation to the California Emergency Management Agency for grants to child exploitation and child sexual abuse victim counseling centers and prevention programs.

This bill increases the maximum additional fine to $20,000 for any person convicted of procurement of a child under 16 years of age. The bill also authorizes the court to order a defendant convicted of abducting a person under 18 years of age for the purpose of prostitution to pay an additional fine of $20,000. The bill requires that 50% of those fines collected and deposited in the Victim-Witness Assistance Fund, including the fine authorized in the bill for abducting a minor for the purpose of prostitution, be granted to community-based organizations that serve minor victims of human trafficking.

Existing law authorizes a law enforcement agency investigating certain felony sex offenses, upon the request of the victim, and subject to the commitment of resources, to inform the victim whether or not a DNA profile was obtained from the testing of the rape kit evidence or other crime scene evidence from the case, whether or not that information has been entered into the Department of Justice (DOJ) Data Bank of case evidence, and whether or not there is a match between the DNA profile developed from the rape kit evidence or other crime scene evidence and a DNA profile contained in the DOJ Convicted Offender DNA Data Base, as specified. Existing law also requires that the victim be given written notification by the law enforcement agency if the law enforcement agency elects not to perform DNA testing of the rape kit evidence or other crime scene evidence, or intends to destroy or dispose of the rape kit evidence or other crime scene evidence prior to the expiration of the statute of limitations, as specified. Existing law provides that the sole civil or criminal remedy available to a sexual assault victim for a law enforcement agency's failure to fulfill its responsibilities under the Sexual Assault Victims' DNA Bill of Rights is standing to file a writ of mandamus to require compliance with these notification provisions.

This bill would have required every local law enforcement agency responsible for taking or processing rape evidence annually report to the DOJ specified information about rape kits received and tested during the preceding calendar year. These provisions would have sunseted January 1, 2016.

Existing law authorizes a city, county, or city and county to establish a 5-year pilot program for a procedure to declare a motor vehicle a public nuisance when it is used in the commission of specified crimes related to prostitution.

This bill repeals the pilot program and instead authorizes a city, county, or city and county to adopt an ordinance declaring a motor vehicle to be a nuisance subject to an impoundment period of up to 30 days when the motor vehicle is involved in the commission of one of specified crimes related to prostitution or illegal dumping of commercial quantities of waste matter, if the owner or operator of the vehicle has had a prior conviction for the same offense within the past 3 years. The bill requires the ordinance to include specified provisions related to notice, the payment of towing, storage, and administrative fees, the provision of a post storage hearing, and the release of the impounded vehicle.

This bill also requires the ordinance to provide that operator of a storage facility is civilly liable to the owner of the vehicle or the person who tendered the towing, storage, and related fees for 4 times the amount, not to exceed $500, if the operator of the facility fails to comply with specified requirements to accept a valid bank credit card or cash for the payment of those fees.

Existing law allows an authorized emergency vehicle used by a peace officer, as defined, in the performance of his or her duties to display a steady or flashing blue warning light visible from the front, sides, or rear of the vehicle.

This bill would have expanded the definition of peace officer for purposes of that provision to include members of an arson-investigating unit, regularly paid and employed in that capacity, of a fire department or fire protection agency of a county, city, city and county, district, or the state, if the primary duty of these peace officers is the detection and apprehension of persons who have violated any fire law or committed insurance fraud.

This bill also would have limited the authorization to display a steady or flashing blue warning light to authorized emergency vehicles used by peace officers in accordance with the above provisions.

Existing law requires all manufacturers of ignition interlock devices that meet specified requirements and are certified in a manner approved by the Department of Motor Vehicles, that intend to market the devices in this state, to first apply to the department on forms provided by the department and to pay an accompanying fee in an amount not to exceed the amount necessary to cover the costs incurred by the department in carrying out those provisions.

This bill requires a manufacturer and a manufacturer's agent, certified by the department to provide ignition interlock devices, to provide each year to the department information on the number of false positives and the time to reset the device. The bill also requires the department to use this information in evaluating the continued certification of an ignition interlock device.

Existing law requires a person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle to be suspended or revoked for a specified period of time if the person has been convicted of violating specified provisions prohibiting driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage or drug or the combined influence of an alcoholic beverage and drug, or with 0.08% or more, by weight, of alcohol in his or her blood or while addicted to the use of any drug, with or without bodily injury to another. Existing law also authorizes a person whose privilege is suspended or revoked in that manner to receive a restricted driver's license if specified requirements are met, including, in some instances, the installation of an ignition interlock device on the person's vehicle.

This bill requires the department to establish a pilot program from July 1, 2010, to January 1, 2016, in the counties of Alameda, Los Angeles, Sacramento, and Tulare that require, as a condition of being issued a restricted driver's license, being reissued a driver's license, or having the privilege to operate a motor vehicle reinstated subsequent to a conviction for a violation of the above offenses, a person to install for a specified period of time an ignition interlock device on all vehicles he or she owns or operates, except as provided. The amount of time the ignition interlock device would be required to be installed would be based upon the number of convictions, as prescribed.

This bill prohibits the implementation of the pilot program if the department fails to obtain, by January 31, 2010, nonstate funds for the programming costs of the pilot program. The bill sets up a statutory scheme under which the department would, with regard to the installation of an ignition interlock device described above, notify the person of the ignition interlock device installation requirements established under the bill, accept notification from the installer of the ignition interlock device of attempts to remove, bypass, or tamper with the ignition interlock device or if the person fails 3 or more times to comply with the maintenance requirements, monitor the installation and maintenance of the ignition interlock device, and keep specified records.

This bill also requires that manufacturers and manufacturers' agents, certified by the department to provide ignition interlock devices, adopt a fee schedule for payment of the costs of the ignition interlock device based on the offender's ability to pay, and would require the court to adopt a similar fee schedule with regard to the fees for the county alcohol and drug problem assessment program.

This bill provides that on or before January 1, 2015, the department be required to report to the Legislature regarding the effectiveness of the pilot program in reducing the number of first-time driving under the influence violations and repeat offenses in those counties.

False statements made in connection with a loan secured by real property may also be prosecuted under more general fraud provisions, including for a felony.

This bill deletes the existing specific misdemeanor for making a false statement concerning a loan secured by real property. Instead, the bill defines the offense of mortgage fraud, a violation of which is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail for not more than one year. The bill provides that mortgage fraud may only be prosecuted when the value of the alleged fraud meets the threshold for grand theft, as specified.

Existing law provides that every defendant, when represented by appointed counsel, is required to be assessed a registration fee not to exceed $25, but the fee is not required of any defendant that is financially unable to pay it. Under existing law, these provisions are operative in a county only upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors electing to establish the registration fee.

This bill increases the maximum amount for that registration fee to $50.

Existing law authorizes the county board of supervisors or the court, as the case may be, to require reimbursement for the actual cost of services rendered for a petition to seal or expunge a criminal record of a minor, not to exceed $120.

This bill raises that limit to $150.

Existing law limits the fees that a court, county, or city, as applicable, may charge for various costs related to the judgment and execution of criminal matters, including certain administrative costs, costs related to collecting restitution or to probation supervision, certain costs of conducting a criminal investigation, and costs related to providing specified court services, such as a petition for changing a plea or for an order sealing a record. Existing law also limits the fee that a local agency may charge for taking fingerprints for licensing, employment, or certification to an amount not to exceed $10.

This bill increases the maximum fee for administrative costs of collection from 10% to 15%, and for other fees would delete those limits.

Existing law authorizes a county to levy charges for the reasonable costs of support of a minor against the father, mother, spouse, or other person, while the minor is placed, or detained in, or committed to, any institution or other place, or pursuant to an order of the juvenile court. Existing law limits the costs of support to actual costs incurred by the county for food and food preparation, clothing, personal supplies, and medical expenses, not to exceed a maximum cost of $15 per day, except that the cost may be adjusted every 3rd year to reflect the percentage change in the calendar year annual average of the California Consumer Price Index, as specified.

This bill increases that amount to $30 per day.

This bill also increases other local fees.

Existing law establishes the Witness Relocation and Assistance Program.

This bill provides that no person, state or local public agency, or private entity shall post the home address, the telephone number, or personal identifying information that discloses the location of any witness or witness family member participating in the Witness Relocation and Assistance Program (WRAP) with the intent that another person imminently use that information to commit a crime involving violence or a threat of violence against that witness or witness' family member, and that a violation of these provisions would be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of up to $2,500, or up to 6 months in a county jail, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

This bill also provides that a violation that leads to the bodily injury of the witness, or the witness' family members who are participating in the program, is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of up to $5,000, or up to one year in a county jail, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

This bill authorizes participants in the program to submit opt-out forms to Internet search engine providers to notify those providers of the participants, and to prevent inclusion of the participants' addresses and telephone numbers in public Internet search databases, as specified.

This bill requires a business, state or local agency, private entity, or person to remove the home address or telephone number of a WRAP participant from its public Internet search databases within two business days of delivery of the opt-out form, and to ensure the information is not reposted on the same Internet Web site, a subsidiary site, or any other Internet Web site maintained by the recipient of the opt-out form, and would subject a violator of this provision to a $5,000 civil fine, as specified. The bill authorizes a witness whose home address or telephone number is made public as a result of a violation, as specified, to bring an action seeking injunctive or declaratory relief.

This bill further provides that no business, state or local agency, private entity, or person that has received an opt-out form from WRAP participants shall solicit, sell, or trade on the Internet the home address or telephone number of that participant, and authorizes an action for damages, as specified, for a violation of this prohibition.

Existing law requires that a malpractice action against an attorney for a wrongful act or omission, other than actual fraud, must be commenced within one year after the plaintiff discovers, or should have discovered, the wrongful act or omission, or 4 years from the date of the wrongful act or omission, whichever occurs first.

This bill provides that, if the legal malpractice plaintiff is required to establish his or her factual innocence for a crime, the time to commence this action shall be 2 years after the plaintiff achieves postconviction exoneration, as specified.

Existing law provides that any finding that an arrestee is factually innocent, as specified, shall not be admissible as evidence in any action.

This bill provides that a finding that an arrestee is factually innocent shall be admissible as evidence at a hearing before the California Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board.

Existing law allows a presiding judge, whenever it appears to the judge that an acquitted person is factually innocent, to order that the case records be sealed.

This bill requires a judge, upon motion of a party or the court, to seal case records whenever a person's conviction is set aside because he or she is factually innocent.

Existing law allows a person who was erroneously convicted and imprisoned to present a claim within a period of 6 months after judgment of acquittal or discharge given, or after pardon granted, or after release from imprisonment, against the state to the Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board for the pecuniary injury sustained by him or her through the erroneous conviction and imprisonment.

This bill extends the time for making such a claim to within 2 years.

Existing law provides that in a hearing for compensation by an erroneously convicted person, he or she must prove the facts underlying the claim, including that the crime was either not committed at all, or, if committed, not committed by the claimant, and that the claimant did not intentionally or negligently contribute to his or her arrest or conviction. The claimant must show pecuniary injury. If these facts are established, the board shall to recommend to the Legislature that an appropriation be made to indemnify the claimant.

This bill removes the requirement that the claimant to prove that he or she did not negligently contribute to his or her arrest or conviction, as specified.

Existing law provides for the licensure and regulation of contractors by the Contractors' State License Board. It is a misdemeanor for a person to engage in the business or act in the capacity of a contractor without having a license. A first offense is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for no more than 6 months, or by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or both. The court shall impose upon a person who has been previously convicted of that offense a fine of 20% of the price of the contract, as specified, or $4,500, whichever is greater, and imprisonment in the county jail for at least 90 days, except as specified. A 3rd or subsequent conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $4,500 nor more than the greater of $10,000 or 20% of the contract price or by imprisonment in the county jail, as specified, or both, and applies those penalty provisions to a person who is named on a revoked license and is held responsible for the act or omission resulting in the revocation. The court shall order a defendant convicted of a crime under those provisions, or under provisions related to the offering or performance of repairs caused by a natural disaster, to pay restitution to the victim, as specified.

This bill makes a first conviction punishable by a fine not exceeding $5,000 or by imprisonment in a county jail for no more than 6 months, as specified, or both. The bill requires that the fine for a 2nd conviction be the greatest of 20% of the contract price, 20% of the aggregate payments made to, or at the direction of, the unlicensed contractor, or $5,000. The bill also requires that a 3rd or subsequent conviction be punishable by both a fine and imprisonment in a county jail, as specified, and requires that the fine be no less than $5,000 and no more than the greatest of $10,000, 20% of the contract price, or 20% of the aggregate payments made to, or at the direction of, the unlicensed contractor. The bill also provides that a person who used the services of an unlicensed contractor is a victim of crime and eligible for restitution for economic losses, regardless of whether or not that person knew the contractor was unlicensed.

AB 388 (Miller): Chapter 100: Firefighter uniforms.
(Amends Section 538e of the Penal Code.)

Existing law provides that any person, other than an officer or member of a fire department, who willfully wears, exhibits, or uses the authorized uniform of an officer or member of a fire department or a deputy state fire marshal, with the intent of fraudulently impersonating an officer or member of a fire department or the Office of the State Fire Marshal, or of fraudulently inducing the belief that he or she is an officer or member of a fire department or the Office of the State Fire Marshal, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

This bill requires, subject to exceptions, that vendors of firefighting uniforms verify that a person purchasing a uniform identifying a firefighting agency or department is an employee or authorized member of the agency or department identified on the uniform, as specified. A violation of these provisions is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000.

AB 538 (Arambula): VETOED: Emergency telephone system: abuse.
(Amends Section 653y of the Penal Code.)

Legislative History:

Existing law existing law, any person who knowingly allows the use of, or who uses, the 911 telephone system for any reason other than because of an emergency is guilty of an infraction.

This bill would have authorized an entity that provides emergency medical services to report a violation of this law to the public safety entity that originally received the call. The bill also would have required the public safety entity originally receiving the call, if the public safety entity has verified that a violation has occurred, to issue the applicable warnings and citations, as specified.

AB 811 (John Perez): VETOED: Check cashing businesses and identification cards.
(Amends Sections 1789.30 and 1789.35 of the Civil Code, and amends Sections 13004.1 and 14610.1 of the Vehicle Code.)

Legislative History:

Assembly Banking & Finance (11-0)

Existing law prohibits a check casher from charging a fee of more than $10 to set up an initial account and issue an optional identification card for providing check cashing services.

This bill would have prohibited a check casher from selling an identification card other than that optional check cashing identification card. The bill would have also prohibited a check casher from requiring a customer to purchase a check cashing identification card to access services or from misrepresenting the use of that identification card.

Existing law prohibits any person from manufacturing or selling an identification document that is substantially similar to the identification cards or driver's licenses issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles. This offense is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $1,000, which shall not be suspended. The defendant must also perform not less than 24 hours of community service during hours when he or she is not employed and is not attending school.

This bill would have changed the punishment for that crime to a fine between $250 and $1,000, 24 hours of community service, and, in the court's discretion, imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year. The bill would also provide that the court may place the defendant on probation, with conditions that include, but are not limited to, a fine and community service. The bill would provide that no part of the fine or community service shall be suspended or waived.
