

AGENDA

March 8, 2016
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
State Capitol, Room 3191

Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion (LEAD) Safer and Healthier Communities

I. Welcoming Remarks and Introductions

- Senator Hancock, Chair, Senate Committee on Public Safety and Senate Subcommittee No. 5 on Corrections, Public Safety and the Judiciary
- Senator Holly Mitchell, Chair, Senate Subcommittee No. 3 on Health and Human Services
- Other Members of the Committees

II. Seattle LEAD Summary

- Kris Nyrop, LEAD National Support Director

III. Seattle LEAD Team Members

- Jim Pugel, King County Sheriff's Office
- Natalie Walton-Anderson, King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office
- Chloe Gale MSW, Seattle REACH - LEAD Case Management

IV. LEAD Evaluation - Participant Outcomes, Reduced Recidivism

- Seema Clifasefi, Ph.D. Assistant Professor
University of Washington Harm Reduction Research and Treatment Center

V. Public Comment